

Knuckle Boom Operator:

Rutland Lumber Company has a Knuckle Boom Operator position available:

Job Description:

Responsible for the day-to-day safe operation of log processing equipment, cutting of logs/ timbers to Length, stacking logs, unloading of log trucks when needed. This is a full-time, permanent opportunity working for a world class hardwood lumber manufacturer. Successful candidates will be energetic, dependable and self-motivated. Able to work in a fast-paced environment. Must have a strong work ethic and understanding of safe operating procedures. Must be able to follow instructions to work in a safe and efficient manner.

Duties:

- Understand the safe and efficient operation of heavy equipment such as knuckle booms and front-end loaders.
- Inspects machinery for any maintenance repairs or damage.
- Maintains a clean work environment.
- Follow directions of supervisors.
- Understand and comply with safety procedures.
- Properly use all of the required personal protection equipment (PPE) required for specific tasks.
- Ability to operate hand and foot controls in vehicle.
- Other related work or duties as assigned.

Requirements:

- Overtime as required to meet deadlines
- Work is performed in an outdoor setting; hot cold and inclement weather is to be expected and exposure to dust
- Must be physically able to repetitively lift and carry at least 50 LBS on a regular basis

About Us:

Rutland Lumber Company, founded in 1956, is a third generation family-owned hardwood manufacturing business located in the south-central Mississippi city of Collins. Following in the family tradition of his grandfather and father, Leslie Rutland continues the Company's commitment to exceed our customers' expectations before and after the sale.